Download Instructions – Software 2.X
For Patient Data Collection Utility Software

On the Biodex web site, Physical Medicine section, navigate to the 'Software Updates' page under 'Products' in the left navigation bar, and select Patient Data Collection v2.X Software. (This document uses '2.X' to refer to the latest version of the software, but the website will show the actual latest version number; for example, in April 2016, version 2.0.2 was released.) This will bring up the page with a "download" button (See Figures 1 and 2). Follow the steps listed below:

How to Download:

NOTE: The screenshots used in this document are from a system running Internet Explorer 10. Other browsers will look slightly different from these screenshots.
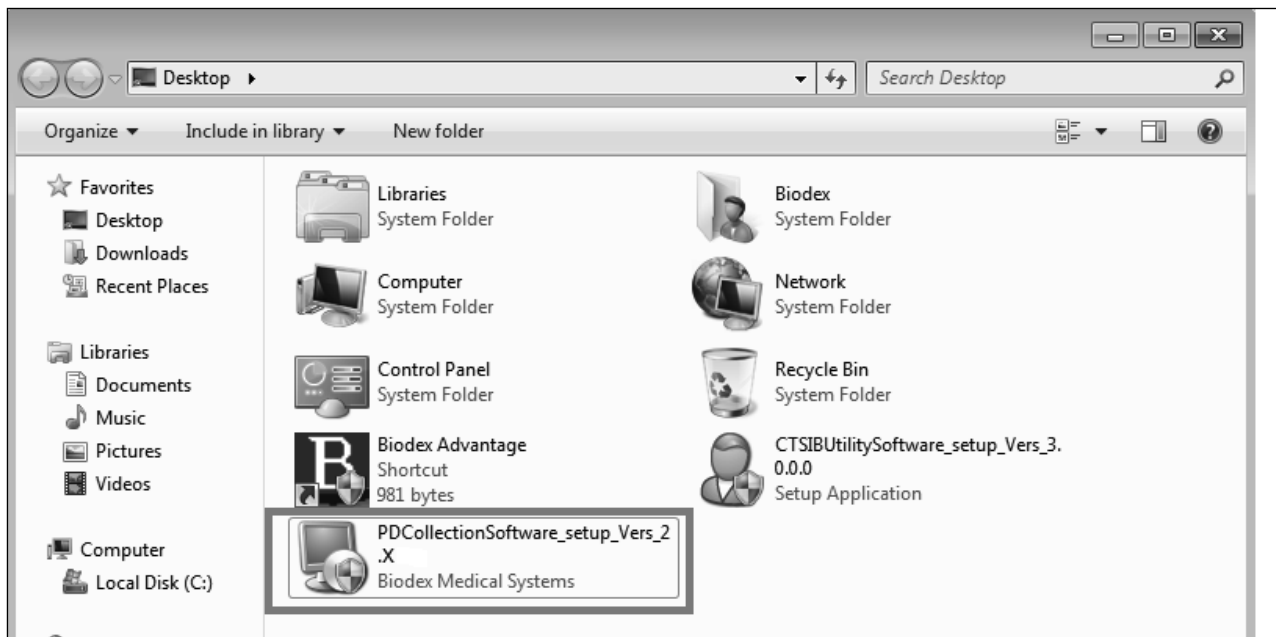

1. Click on the "DOWNLOAD" button to download the software.

2. At the bottom of the browser, a small pop-up bar will appear. Click on "Save" button.

Do you want to run or save PDCollectionSoftware_setup_Vers_2.X.exe   (7.47 MB) from biodex.com?   [Run] [Save ▼] [Cancel] ✕

3. Once the download is complete, click on "Open Folder" or go to the "Downloads" folder on your computer. (In this example we are saving the file to the Desktop.)

The PDCollectionSoftware_setup_Vers_2.X.exe   download has completed.   [Open ▼] [Open folder] [View downloads] ✕

4. Double click on the file that was just downloaded. It will start the installation procedure of the software. Follow the on-screen instruction to install.
